

SOCIETY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Whittey was the scene of a merry Wednesday evening, September 29, when Miss Lillian Fowler entertained at a party shower in commemoration of Mr. and Mrs. Glen D. Thompson, recently married. The rooms of the Whittey home were beautifully decorated by Miss Lillian Fowler and Miss Bessie Whittey. In the parlors, red streamers were hung from the chandelier to the corners of the room. At the end of each streamer tiny red hearts were suspended. In the dining room a decorative color scheme of green and white was carried out, and flowers were used in profusion. A buffet luncheon was daintily served to about thirty-five, many of whom were out-of-town guests. Games and music were the diversions of the evening and the fun continued until a late hour. Many beautiful as well as useful gifts were showered upon the young couple with the kindest congratulations.

Mrs. John Browning of Ogden spent the week-end at the Hotel Alexandria in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Florence Fisher and Mrs. E. O. Lamb have returned from Salt Lake

at several affairs during the past week. Fall flowers and autumn leaves, in glorious colors of crimson and gold, were arranged throughout the Blaylock home. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music. Many gifts were showered upon the young couple with the kindest congratulations. Luncheon was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lyon, Miss Gertrude Bell, Miss Sadie Brooker, Mrs. R. F. Berrett, Walter H. Berrett, Halvor G. Berrett, Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Berrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Blaylock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Berrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Barker, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. George Youneman, Mr. and Mrs. William Slomp, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Hyman E. Judkins, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. William Spackman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter, Mrs. Sarah Summerhays, Mrs. Annie Judkins, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, Mrs. David Chandler, Mrs. Beatrice Campbell, Miss Beulah, Miss Alice Olive home, 985 Twenty-fourth street. Miss Helen Rich and Miss Ida Holley were the assisting hostesses for Thursday afternoon, while Miss Holley and Mrs. Rudiger assisted the second afternoon. Decorations were in yellow and blue, with profusions of asters, autumn leaves and fall flowers decorating the home. During each afternoon, about twenty-four guests were present and dainty articles were made for the bride-elect. Luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Hope Fox entertained a few of her friends at a well appointed four-course dinner at her home on Fowler avenue on Thursday. A dancing party at the Berthons followed. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the Fox residence, with lovely fall flowers predominating. A large birthday cake, elaborately iced with pink and white, and bearing candles in rosebuds was the centerpiece for the table. Folds of white satin were arranged around the base of the cake and streamers of pink ribbon were attached, extending out to each place card, where pink rosebuds formed the favors. Those present were Ruth Pingree, Annette Cunningham, Beva Cotic, Claudia Roberts, Harold Parnoff, Carlos Ches, Herman Fletcher, Wilford Burton, Fred Korta, Leonard Conn and the hostess.

Miss Dora Paine entertained at a troupeau tea Monday afternoon at her home, 172 Thirtieth street. A lavender and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations.

east, where he will take up missionary work for the Church of Latter Day Saints. Mr. Rhees expects to be gone for two years.

Members of the adult Bible class of the First Baptist church were hostesses at an evening social Tuesday in the church parlors. Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, and the evening was enjoyed in an excellent program, and in the playing of games. Another social has been planned for the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. William Royal have returned from a honeymoon trip in Idaho and are making their homes at Wilson. They are at home to their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Royal were married during the middle of September. Mrs. Royal was formerly Miss Viola Mecholson.

Miss Vera Littlefield has gone to Marysville to visit relatives for several weeks.

Miss Kathryn Hanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hanley will be married on Wednesday of the coming week to Laurence C. Gunning of Portland, Ore. The wedding will take place at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

CLUBS

Members of the Sacred Heart Alumnae association will hold their first tea this afternoon at the academy parlors. Officers of the association will be the hostesses for the afternoon. Members of the 1921 class will be honored guests.

Mrs. W. E. Quillman was hostess to the members of the St. Joseph's Sewing society last Thursday afternoon, when the club met in the St. Joseph's hall.

Mrs. Archie Moore will entertain the members of the Royal Purple society Monday, October 4, at her home, 134 Cooley avenue.

The Child Culture club will meet at the University club rooms, Oct. 4, with Mesdames Louise Horn and Josephine McCulloch as hostesses. Mrs. Georgina Marshall will take on "Relative Day." All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Joseph Parnoff entertained the members of the Ogden British association Monday evening at a social given at her home, 924 Thirtieth street. Games and social amusements formed the entertainment of the evening. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. Fall flowers were used as decorations.

Mrs. T. C. Iverson was hostess Wednesday evening to the members of the B. I. M. Five Hundred club at her home, 841 Washington avenue. The guests were entertained at two tables. A Five Hundred with supper followed. Asters decorated the home and the table. The club will hold its next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 12, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Greenway, 1811 Washington avenue.

St. Joseph's Altar society of the Catholic church gave a card party Tuesday evening at the University club, under the auspices of the local Knights of Columbus. The club rooms were decorated with fall flowers of various colors and at the close of the evening refreshments were served. About two hundred and fifty guests were present.

Mrs. J. T. Mignault entertained the members of the W. G. C. social club Wednesday evening at her home, 2065 Jefferson avenue. Cards were the pastime of the evening. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. A late hour, Mrs. Julia A. Allen was the assisting hostess. The club will meet again in two weeks.

Members of the Episcopal Guild were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Carpenter, 2227 Adams avenue. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Ellen Brewer were the hostesses. The afternoon was spent in needlework and chatting over the tea cups. Dainty and appetizing refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Silver Review No. 1, Women's Benedit association of the Macabees, entertained their friends at a card party Wednesday evening in the Woodmen of the World hall. Refreshments were served to the guests of the evening.

Regular meeting of the Service Star League of Ogden will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Elks club rooms. All members of the chapter and friends are invited to be present. Otto Eckhardt, Jr., and Mrs. Al Collins, delegates to the national convention, will give interesting reports on the meetings held at Des Moines. Many of the constructive plans and future possibilities will be brought out in the reports.

The Live Oak club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. A. L. Quillman at her home in West Ogden. Quilling was the pastime of the morning. At 1 o'clock a luncheon was served and later in the afternoon refreshments were served. Sixteen guests were present. Mrs. Jennie Welch will entertain the club Wednesday, at her home, 953 Capitol avenue.

The opening tea for the fall season to be given by the members of the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will be held Monday in the church parlors. Officers of the society will be the hostesses for the afternoon.

The Liberty club of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joseph Robb. Mrs. Robb and Mrs. Guller were the hostesses. Five hundred was the diversion of the afternoon and favors were awarded to Mrs. Will Reeves and Mrs. E. Ecklund. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. E. Ecklund of Green River was the guest at the meeting.

Members of the S. O. H. club were entertained last Monday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Junk, 432 Twenty-second street. Plans were made at the business meeting for a big party to be given by the club in the near future. The remainder of the evening was spent in social chat and enjoyment. The clubs will meet again Monday evening at the home of Miss Lizette Maglin.

Ogden City Federation of Women's club will meet at the City Hall Monday at 3 o'clock.

The Episcopal Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. T. Hume, 547 Twenty-third street. Mrs. J. P. Allen will be the assisting hostess.

The Ladies Literary club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Douglas Watson. Mrs. H. B. Bagley was in charge of the program for the afternoon. Superintendent E. A. Fowler of the county schools gave a thoroughly interesting talk on "Utah home, 985 Twenty-fourth street. Miss Helen Rich and Miss Ida Holley were the assisting hostesses for Thursday afternoon, while Miss Holley and Mrs. Rudiger assisted the second afternoon. Decorations were in yellow and blue, with profusions of asters, autumn leaves and fall flowers decorating the home. During each afternoon, about twenty-four guests were present and dainty articles were made for the bride-elect. Luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

A card party was given Monday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall by the members of the Royal Neighbors of America.

R. Stanley Rhees was the complimentary guest at a farewell party given Monday evening at the Pleasant View war. The evening was spent in dancing and social entertainment. Short addresses were made during the evening. Refreshments were served. Mr. Rhees left Wednesday, Sept. 29, for the

GOSSARD CORSETS

We continue to feature these original front lacing corsets for the simple and sufficient reason that they continue to give unquestioned satisfaction to our most exacting customers.

Gossard Corsets are still nominally priced within the reach of every woman and you may buy every Gossard with our assurance that it will be worth every cent you pay for it—worth it in style, worth it in comfort, and worth it in wearing quality.

Wright's

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Educational System and Its New Place? A piano selection was given by Miss Florence Marsh. Mrs. Pauline Waterfall entertained with a vocal solo. Mrs. Watson served a delicious luncheon assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Vern Watson and Mrs. Lawrence Watson. The club will meet again in three weeks at the home of Mrs. P. A. Herd.

The Pan-Hellenic association of Ogden met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Philip Dix at Roy. About twenty members were in attendance and the afternoon was enjoyed in Kensington. Luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. J. H. Spargo entertained the Five Hundred club Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Spargo. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Fall flowers were used as decorations. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. V. G. Dalrymple, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Jane Putnam, Mrs. Leroy Adamson, Mrs. H. M. Rowe, Mrs. A. B. Culley, Mrs. Warren Blinford, Mrs. Ralph Brown, Mrs. J. H. Egerton, Mrs. Archie Bowman and Mrs. James W. Collins of Salt Lake. Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Collins assisted the hostess.

The Sempre Musical society will hold their next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 5 at the home of Mrs. Leslie Saville. Important business is to come before the meeting and all members are requested to be present, immediately at 2:30 o'clock. The following program will be given: "Beethoven's Later Life," by Mrs. James Carrigan, "Beethoven's Music," Miss Royal Eccles, chairman; Mrs. Ellen West, Mrs. Eugene Carr, Miss Mary Fisher, Miss Dora Smith, Mrs. Don Beason, Miss Dorothy Wright and Miss Mary Parnley.

Opening silver tea of the Sacred Heart Alumnae association will be given this afternoon in the parlors of the academy. Sunflowers will be used in the decorations of the room. Officers of the association who will act as hostesses for the afternoon and will pour tea are Miss Gladys Rich, Mrs. Edna Hamilton, Dineen Miss Helen Kennedy, Mrs. Lillian O'Neil, Mrs. Margaret McNulty, Morrissey and Mrs. Margaret Mercer. Members of Class '21 will be present. Tea will be served between the hours of 3 and 6.

Women's Auxiliary to the Railway Mail association will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Archer, 328 Thirtieth street, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Ald returned from a several months' stay in San Francisco and Oakland, and is again at her home, 336 Eleventh East street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ray Calhoun, accompanied by Miss Honore Stagg, Arthur Erickson and George Goetz, have returned from a motor trip to Fish Lake, Bryce and Grand canyons.

The marriage of Miss Mildred Salner and Howard B. Anderson took place yesterday morning in the Salt Lake temple. A wedding breakfast for roses and lilies of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Anderson, Sr., on Tenth East street, for the bride party and relatives. Orange colored stinnas decorated the table. A reception was given last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Salner, 1887 Tenth East street. The living room and library were decorated in yellow marigolds and nasturtiums. In the dining room a pink and white color scheme was carried out. Pink petunias in the crystal bowl on a cluny cover over pink, formed a centerpiece for the table. A box of Opheelia roses formed the centerpiece at either end of the table held yellow candles. The place cards were kept in the center of the table in yellow roses. The nut cups were also yellow. Covers were laid for ten, including the bridal party.

The bride wore a gown of flesh colored Georgette trimmed in silver. Her veil was caught with pearls and orange blossoms, and she carried bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Viola Salner, sister of the bride, who was bridesmaid, wore yellow taffeta and carried pink sweetpeas. Leland Anderson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Salner in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Anderson, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Anderson, Jr., and Mrs. Edna E. Anderson. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Asenith Smith, Miss Helen Burton, Miss Helen

The bride wore a heavier colored broadcloth suit, with a feather hat, and boots and gloves to match. The couple left on an early afternoon train for a visit to Chicago and Rockford, Ill. They will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cowie entertained Major James Ralph, Jr., and Mrs. Ralph of San Francisco at dinner at the Country club Tuesday evening.

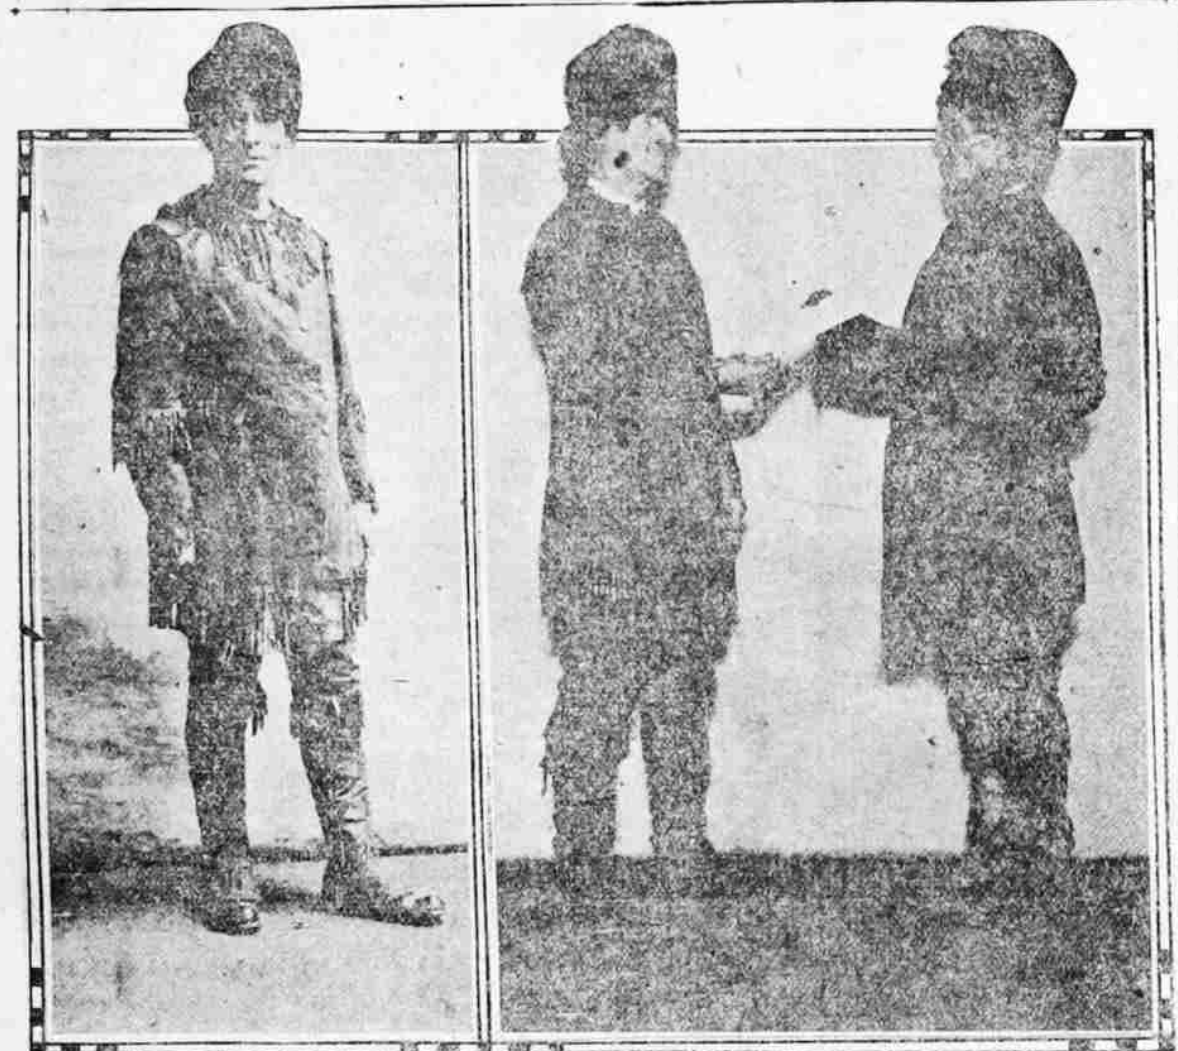

Mrs. William G. Knox has returned from southern Utah and is at home at the Barton apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Behal and children have returned to New York for a visit to Mrs. Behal's parents, Governor and Mrs. Behal, and will spend the latter part of the week with Mrs. Will Carman on Sixth East street. Mrs. Harry Clark entertained at luncheon Tuesday at her home in Elwood Place, in honor of Mrs. Whitney, and she was the guest of honor at a swimming party at Beck's Hot Springs Monday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Knowlton, followed by supper at the Knowlton home on Sixth East street.

Mrs. J. W. Ald returned from a several months' stay in San Francisco and Oakland, and is again at her home, 336 Eleventh East street.

Left to right, N. O. Ogden, who took the part of Peter Skene Ogden in the pageant; Merlin J. Stone, who took the part of Miles Goadyear, and Charles Brown, who took the part of his father, Captain James Brown.

after spending the early part of the week there as the guests of friends.

Mrs. Dean E. Brimhall visited in Salt Lake during the week.

Miss Vera Tracy and Miss Glenna Marshall have gone to Los Angeles to spend the fall and winter.

Warren L. Watts has returned from a two weeks' visit in the east. He accompanied his daughter, Winifred, to Smith college at Northampton, Mass., visiting en route at Chicago, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and New York.

Mrs. W. A. Turner, Mrs. Frank Francis, Mrs. W. H. Williams, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. C. J. Humphries were Salt Lake guests last Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Douglas of Salt Lake is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tracy.

Mrs. C. R. Brannan entertained in compliment to Miss Dora Paine Wednesday evening at a kitchen shower at her home, 175 Patterson avenue. Miss Paine was a bride of the week. Gifts of all sizes and sorts were presented to the bride-elect. Games and music formed an evening of unusual fun and entertainment. Refreshments were served to twenty-five guests, friends of the bride.

Mrs. J. Orson Douglas and son, James, and baby daughter have returned from a visit with Mrs. Douglas's sister, Mrs. R. T. Savage, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Douglas was accompanied by Mrs. Savage, who is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Eccles.

The opening season dance at the Berthons was held Wednesday evening. More than three hundred couples were present. Special music was given by the Lillian Thatcher orchestra.

Mrs. C. L. Williamson announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary, to Leslie A. Smith of Logan, Utah. The marriage took place in the Salt Lake temple on Wednesday, September 29. Mr. Smith has left for St. Louis, where he is taking a medical course at the Washington University. Mrs. Smith will join him later.

George Lockhead, Jr., superintendent of the Platteau gas plant, left yesterday for Denver, Albuquerque, San Antonio, and other points in the Mexico and Texas on business connected with his company.

Chester Hess left last week for Ann Arbor, where he will attend Michigan university for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritter of Riverside, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Arthur Brown, son of County Commissioner Martin P. Brown. The wedding will take place in November.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lyon, who were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Blaylock of North Ogden, entertained Friday evening at a wedding reception. The bride was formerly Miss Edna Caroline Berrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Berrett and has been the complimentary guest Randall, Jack Campbell, Lefton Montgomerie, Miss Vera Tracy, Miss Glenna Marshall, Miss Bessie Berrett, Miss Gladys Blaylock, Grant Berrett, Walter Blaylock and Maurice Berrett.

Another of the delightful Galea showers was given last Tuesday evening at the Bess ranch, south of town, in honor of Miss Kathryn Hanley, bride-elect for early October. The joint hostesses were the Misses Edna Reus, Bertha Hellwell and Emma Saules. The enjoyment of the evening began as the guests gathered at the city limits and were transported in the coach by means of a hayrack. This novel experience caused a happy ripple among the girls and was highly enjoyed. From the moment of arrival, the guests were kept in an uproar of merriment with humorous games and pranks. Prizes were awarded to winners of the "Advertising Contest."

First prize, a cut-glass vase, to Miss Zeina Bauer, and consolation prize, a toy goat of Miss Roma Knight. The main attraction of the evening was a burlesque wedding with the bride-elect taking the leading role. Late in the evening refreshments were served, followed by the opening of the shower packages by the honored guest. Among many beautiful remembrances were patterned those whose names caused additional fun for both the recipient and guests. This closed with a package of letters written by the guests, these to be opened a week apart after her wedding. Tired, but happy, guests embarked on the hay-rack and passed the time homeward with popular songs. The Galea girls with a few close relatives and friends of the bride-elect comprised the guests.

Miss Avon Rich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Rich has departed for the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Peter Cunningham, employee of the Ogden Furniture and Carpet company, and Miss Alma Bauer, well known Ogden music teacher, were united in matrimony by Bishop O. M. Anderson Thursday afternoon. They will be at home to their friends after the early part of the week at 215 Plaza apartments.

The graduating class of Sacred Heart academy was fully organized during the last week. Members of the class number twenty-one, being one of the largest graduating classes ever organized in the school. Officers appointed were Miss Agnes Branstetter, president; Miss Lena Holmen, vice president; Miss Kathryn Boyle, secretary; and Miss Hazel Abbey, treasurer. Other members in the class are: Lorraine Bagley, Nonna Brown, Winifred Carr, Marie Clifford, Alma Comstock, Marie Dore, Florence Dunn, Josephine Ferraro, Margaret Oram, Leona Carl, Nora Koller, Gladys Kowski, Genevieve McCarthy, Rhonda Nebeker, Margaret Oram, Thekla Schneider and Madeilyn Toy.

Mrs. LaRue Lammers, who has been touring the east with her husband, Hyman Lammers, connected with Sousa's band, has returned to Ogden and has resumed her position as organist at the Alhambra theatre.

Complimenting Miss Ida Holley, fall bride-elect, Mrs. Warren Arthur entertained at two afternoon sewing parties, Thursday and Friday, at her home, 985 Twenty-fourth street. Miss Helen Rich and Miss Ida Holley were the assisting hostesses for Thursday afternoon, while Miss Holley and Mrs. Rudiger assisted the second afternoon. Decorations were in yellow and blue, with profusions of asters, autumn leaves and fall flowers decorating the home. During each afternoon, about twenty-four guests were present and dainty articles were made for the bride-elect. Luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Hope Fox entertained a few of her friends at a well appointed four-course dinner at her home on Fowler avenue on Thursday. A dancing party at the Berthons followed. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the Fox residence, with lovely fall flowers predominating. A large birthday cake, elaborately iced with pink and white, and bearing candles in rosebuds was the centerpiece for the table. Folds of white satin were arranged around the base of the cake and streamers of pink ribbon were attached, extending out to each place card, where pink rosebuds formed the favors. Those present were Ruth Pingree, Annette Cunningham, Beva Cotic, Claudia Roberts, Harold Parnoff, Carlos Ches, Herman Fletcher, Wilford Burton, Fred Korta, Leonard Conn and the hostess.

Miss Dora Paine entertained at a troupeau tea Monday afternoon at her home, 172 Thirtieth street. A lavender and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations.

Members of the Sacred Heart Alumnae association will hold their first tea this afternoon at the academy parlors. Officers of the association will be the hostesses for the afternoon. Members of the 1921 class will be honored guests.

Mrs. W. E. Quillman was hostess to the members of the St. Joseph's Sewing society last Thursday afternoon, when the club met in the St. Joseph's hall.

Mrs. Archie Moore will entertain the members of the Royal Purple society Monday, October 4, at her home, 134 Cooley avenue.

staid out in the decorations with asters in a large glass bowl forming the centerpiece for the table. Mrs. R. B. Paine presided at the tea table. Miss Paine was assisted by Mrs. C. R. Brannan, Mrs. T. Hume and Mrs. Maud Paine. About forty-five guests called during the afternoon. Tea was served from 2 until 6 o'clock.

Miss Lucille Dixon entertained at a surprise party Saturday evening, September 25, in honor of Miss Norma Peterson who left for Salt Lake to resume her studies at the University of Utah. The rooms were decorated in roses and fall flowers. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served. Twenty-five guests were present.

Mrs. Lillian P. Wilson left during the early part of the week for Oakland, Cal., where she will visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Sherer. Mrs. Sherer was formerly Miss Jaunita B. Wilson of Ogden. Mrs. Wilson will remain in California for some time, until her health improves.

Mrs. John Browning and Miss Beatrice Browning of Ogden are visiting at the Ambassador hotel, Santa Barbara. They will spend some time at the seaside resort.

Mrs. Elaine Cronquist and Mrs. Eliza Wessler of Logan were Ogden guests last Sunday. They were en route to St. Paul, where they will visit friends and relatives for a short period.

William Eckhardt of Burlington, Ia., is visiting in Ogden with his brother, Otto Eckhardt. The trip is the first that Mr. Eckhardt has made to the west and he has been much impressed with Ogden.

Mrs. Anna Hastings of 2227 Grant avenue, left this week for her old home in Grinnell, Iowa. Mrs. Hastings expects to spend the winter months in Iowa.

Mrs. Leanne Erwin has returned to the home of her daughter Mrs. Charles Packer on Jefferson avenue, after visiting with Mrs. Robert Gamble at Hazen, Nev.

Miss Bernice Hume and Miss Nellie Richardson have returned to their homes in Ogden after visiting for the past few weeks at Great Falls, Mont. Miss Hume and Miss Richardson were the complimentary guests at several pretty affairs during their absence.

A card party was given Monday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall by the members of the Royal Neighbors of America.

R. Stanley Rhees was the complimentary guest at a farewell party given Monday evening at the Pleasant View war. The evening was spent in dancing and social entertainment. Short addresses were made during the evening. Refreshments were served. Mr. Rhees left Wednesday, Sept. 29, for the home, 985 Twenty-fourth street. Miss Helen Rich and Miss Ida Holley were the assisting hostesses for Thursday afternoon, while Miss Holley and Mrs. Rudiger assisted the second afternoon. Decorations were in yellow and blue, with profusions of asters, autumn leaves and fall flowers decorating the home. During each afternoon, about twenty-four guests were present and dainty articles were made for the bride-elect. Luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Hope Fox entertained a few of her friends at a well appointed four-course dinner at her home on Fowler avenue on Thursday. A dancing party at the Berthons followed. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the Fox residence, with lovely fall flowers predominating. A large birthday cake, elaborately iced with pink and white, and bearing candles in rosebuds was the centerpiece for the table. Folds of white satin were arranged around the base of the cake and streamers of pink ribbon were attached, extending out to each place card, where pink rosebuds formed the favors. Those present were Ruth Pingree, Annette Cunningham, Beva Cotic, Claudia Roberts, Harold Parnoff, Carlos Ches, Herman Fletcher, Wilford Burton, Fred Korta, Leonard Conn and the hostess.

after spending the early part of the week there as the guests of friends.

Mrs. Dean E. Brimhall visited in Salt Lake during the week.

Miss Vera Tracy and Miss Glenna Marshall have gone to Los Angeles to spend the fall and winter.

Warren L. Watts has returned from a two weeks' visit in the east. He accompanied his daughter, Winifred, to Smith college at Northampton, Mass., visiting en route at Chicago, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and New York.

Mrs. W. A. Turner, Mrs. Frank Francis, Mrs. W. H. Williams, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. C. J. Humphries were Salt Lake guests last Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Douglas of Salt Lake is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tracy.

Mrs. C. R. Brannan entertained in compliment to Miss Dora Paine Wednesday evening at a kitchen shower at her home, 175 Patterson avenue. Miss Paine was a bride of the week. Gifts of all sizes and sorts were presented to the bride-elect. Games and music formed an evening of unusual fun and entertainment. Refreshments were served to twenty-five guests, friends of the bride.

Mrs. J. Orson Douglas and son, James, and baby daughter have returned from a visit with Mrs. Douglas's sister, Mrs. R. T. Savage, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Douglas was accompanied by Mrs. Savage, who is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Eccles.

The opening season dance at the Berthons was held Wednesday evening. More than three hundred couples were present. Special music was given by the Lillian Thatcher orchestra.

Mrs. C. L. Williamson announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary, to Leslie A. Smith of Logan, Utah. The marriage took place in the Salt Lake temple on Wednesday, September 29. Mr. Smith has left for St. Louis, where he is taking a medical course at the Washington University. Mrs. Smith will join him later.

George Lockhead, Jr., superintendent of the Platteau gas plant, left yesterday for Denver, Albuquerque, San Antonio, and other points in the Mexico and Texas on business connected with his company.

Chester Hess left last week for Ann Arbor, where he will attend Michigan university for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritter of Riverside, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Arthur Brown, son of County Commissioner Martin P. Brown. The wedding will take place in November.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lyon, who were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Blaylock of North Ogden, entertained Friday evening at a wedding reception. The bride was formerly Miss Edna Caroline Berrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Berrett and has been the complimentary guest

after spending the early part of the week there as the guests of friends.

Mrs. Dean E. Brimhall visited in Salt Lake during the week.

Miss Vera Tracy and Miss Glenna Marshall have gone to Los Angeles to spend the fall and winter.

Warren L. Watts has returned from a two weeks' visit in the east. He accompanied his daughter, Winifred, to Smith college at Northampton, Mass., visiting en route at Chicago, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and New York.

Mrs. W. A. Turner, Mrs. Frank Francis, Mrs. W. H. Williams, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. C. J. Humphries were Salt Lake guests last Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Douglas of Salt Lake is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tracy.

Mrs. C. R. Brannan entertained in compliment to Miss Dora Paine Wednesday evening at a kitchen shower at her home, 175 Patterson avenue. Miss Paine was a bride of the week. Gifts of all sizes and sorts were presented to the bride-elect. Games and music formed an evening of unusual fun and entertainment. Refreshments were served to twenty-five guests, friends of the bride.

Mrs. J. Orson Douglas and son, James, and baby daughter have returned from a visit with Mrs. Douglas's sister, Mrs. R. T. Savage, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Douglas was accompanied by Mrs. Savage, who is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Eccles.

The opening season dance at the Berthons was held Wednesday evening. More than three hundred couples were present. Special music was given by the Lillian Thatcher orchestra.

Mrs. C. L. Williamson announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary, to Leslie A. Smith of Logan, Utah. The marriage took place in the Salt Lake temple on Wednesday, September 29. Mr. Smith has left for St. Louis, where he is taking a medical course at the Washington University. Mrs. Smith will join him later.

George Lockhead, Jr., superintendent of the Platteau gas plant, left yesterday for Denver, Albuquerque, San Antonio, and other points in the Mexico and Texas on business connected with his company.

Chester Hess left last week for Ann Arbor, where he will attend Michigan university for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritter of Riverside, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Arthur Brown, son of County Commissioner Martin P. Brown. The wedding will take place in November.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lyon, who were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Blaylock of North Ogden, entertained Friday evening at a wedding reception. The bride was formerly Miss Edna Caroline Berrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Berrett and has been the complimentary guest after spending the early part of the week there as the guests of friends.